BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that the Bench court at Bangalore city is exercising Second class powers at present and that as there are many retired officers who exercised First class powers while in active service, the Bench court may be empowered to take cognizance of first-class cases.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1) The Dm says that the Bench court at Bangalore city has been empowered to take cognizance of all third class cases and is exercising Second class powers also. In view of the fact that the Court has been doing good work and the Magistrates have earned a reputation for competence and integrity (as the DM recommends) when advance may be made by conferring the Bench court with first class powers with jurisdiction to try such of the first class cases as may be selected by the District Magistrate. It is also stated that there are many retired officers who have exercised first class powers while in active service and such of them as have exercised 1st class powers for five years or more may be appointed as Chairman.

2) It is not known whether the Bench court has been empowered to try second class cases triable by a second class magistrate. So far as this office is aware, except summary powers, no other additional powers have been given to the Bench court. It will be advantageous perhaps to invest them with some additional powers in the first instance before giving the Court first class powers. If approved the DM may be requested what classes of cases of a second class nature are being tried by

1. The proposal is to appoint a few retired officers, who have exercised the powers of a 1st. cl. Magte while in service, as Hon. Magts of the 1st class for Bangalore city for a term of 5 years or more so that when they are among the Magtes constituting the Bench for the time being the Bench may exercise 1st. class powers under S. 15 (a) Cr. Pro. Code though only in respect of non-Cognizable offences. The Chief Court recommend that this proposal may be accepted as an experimental measure & the classes of cases triable by the 1st. class Bench added to later on if experience justifies that course.

Apparently it is not intended to invest the 1st. class Bench with the power to commit cases to the Sessions Court for trial. According to the new rules proposed to be issued for the guidance of Bench Courts, these Courts cannot also take cognizance of any case in which either the complainant or the accused is a public servant, except under the orders of the Dt. Magte. And on examining Schedule II to the Cr. Pro. Code it will be found that the remaining offences triable by a 1st. cl. Magte are very few & among these again it is only with regard to offences of defamation and criminal intimidation that complaints are summarily received. For these reasons the relief which the City Magistrate is expected to get by the Bench Court being invested with 1st. cl. powers will be inappreciable as the jurisdiction of the Bench Court in respect of 1st. class cases is limited to non-appealable cases as proposed. The work of the other Criminal Courts in the City is also not likely to be reduced to any appreciable extent by transferring 1st. class non-appealable cases from these Courts to the Bench Court, as the cases that can be so transferred will, on account of the restrictions mentioned above, be very few. It is not possible, therefore, as stated by the Chief Court, to abolish any of the Stipendiary Courts in the City by reason of the Bench Court being invested with 1st. cl. powers. The proposal, if sanctioned, will thus in effect be nothing more than an experimental measure without any immediate practical results. If one of the Stipendiary Courts in the City is to be abolished, the Bench Court can be given (larger powers than are now recommended) & the jurisdiction of the Stipendiary Courts can be suitably readjusted, which have to be considered.

To

Sir,

I have the honour to state that the Honorary Bench Court was first established in Bangalore in the year 1909 and the Magistrates were then invested with Second Class powers, but were empowered to try cases under select sections of the Indian Penal Code as also the special and Local Laws, triable by a III Class Magistrate. In the year 1922 the status of the Court was raised by empowering them to take cognizance of all cases triable by a III Class Magistrate, and since 1st July 1927 an additional Bench, with II Class powers was established. The Courts are besides exercising summary powers since 1909.

2. It is well known that the Bangalore Bench has established a reputation for competency and integrity. This is undoubtedly due to a higher and more intelligent order of persons being available for sitting on the Benches as Magistrates.

3. I consider that the time has come when one more advance might be made and a First Class Bench Court established in Bangalore with jurisdiction over certain classes of cases coming under sections of the Indian Penal Code selected by the District Magistrates. There are a number of retired officers of the Government who have exercised first class powers while in active service. Such of them as have exercised 1st Class powers for five years and above may be appointed to begin with as 1st Class Magistrates and appointed as Chairmen. Under Section 15(2) of the Criminal Procedure Code, the Benches over which they preside will exercise 1st Class powers.

4. I beg that these proposals may be considered. There is no doubt that this will give the City Magistrate some relief and make it possible for him to keep work up to date. If this proposal is approved I shall suggest 3 or 4 names of retired officers of and above the grade of Assistant Commissioners for nomination ~~xxx~~ as First Class Honorary Magistrates.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Sir,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No.P.6606/Cts dated the 28th April 1928 requesting to forward to -- Government the proposals of the District Magistrate of Bangalore for investing the Bench Court, Bangalore City with first class -- powers together with the opinion of the Chief Court thereon.

In reply I am to forward herewith copy of letter No.J. 1867-27-28 dated the 28th January 1928 from the said District Magistrate and of its enclosure and to state that the Chief Court has no objection to establish an Honorary Bench Court with first class powers at Bangalore. The territorial jurisdiction to start with may be co-extensive with that of the Bench now exercising second class powers. As regards the cases or the class of cases to be tried the proposal of the District Magistrate is modest and may be accepted as an experimental measure, to be added to later on if experience justifies the same. As the powers of the Bench will be limited it is not possible to abolish one of the Stipendiary Courts at -- Bangalore, at any rate, for the present.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

T. Singaravelu
Registrar.

~~Copy of~~ Letter No. J. 1867/27-28 dated 28th January 1928 from the District Magistrate, Bangalore, ~~District~~, ~~Bangalore~~ to the Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore, Bangalore.

" I have the honour to state that the Bench Court at Bangalore was first established in the year 1909 and the Honorary Magistrates though invested with 2nd Class Powers were trying cases under select sections of the Indian Penal Code, as also the special and local laws, triable by a Magistrate of the III class. In the year 1922 the status of the Court was raised by empowering them to take cognizance of all cases triable by a III class Magistrate, and since Ist July 1927 an additional Bench with II class powers has been established. Both these Benches have been exercising summary powers from the very commencement.

The Bench Courts in Bangalore have established a reputation for competency and integrity which is undoubtedly due to the higher and more intelligent class of persons being available for nomination as Honorary Magistrates.

As there are in the Bangalore City a number of retired Government Officers who having exercised Ist class powers while in active service are unwilling to serve on a Second Class Bench Court, I consulted several retired gentlemen and recommended to Government that a Bench Court with First Class Powers may be established in Bangalore with jurisdiction over certain selected classes of cases under the Indian Penal Code.

Government have now asked me to submit my proposals through the Chief Court and to investigate the possibility of redistributing the criminal work by giving First Class Powers to one of the Bench Courts of Bangalore City and abolishing the post of one of the Stipendiary Magistrates.

I cannot at this stage say whether it is possible to abolish one of the Stipendiary Magistrates' Courts, but I think that it is quite possible to reduce the pendency in the courts of some of the Stipendiary Magistrates by appointing, to begin with, retired officers as have exercised first class powers for five years and more, as Honorary First Class Magistrates. Under section 15(2) of the Criminal Procedure Code the Benches over which they preside will exercise first class powers. These Courts will at present try all the cases which the Bench Courts are now trying and also First Class Non-cognizable Cases.

I request you to place my proposals before the Bench Court and submit the same to Government.

I am sending in a separate sealed cover the names of certain retired officers who have exercised I st class powers, while in service, and who are, in my opinion, fit to be appointed as Honorary First Class Magistrates as proposed by me.

Dear Sir,

CR 115-27-10

With reference to your D.O. No. P.778/Cts.115-27 dated 1st August 1928, I write to say that I had consulted the gentlemen noted in the list sent with my letter No.J.1867 of the 28th January last and all of them had expressed their willingness to serve as Honorary Magistrates. Mr. Ranoji Rao subsequently wrote to say that he had changed his mind. I consulted Mr. P. Ranga Iyengar, but he lays down the conditions that he should be allowed to continue as a Chairman uninterruptedly for a certain number of years and that he should be given a decent honorarium. These conditions cannot be obviously accepted. I am submitting my recommendations through the Chief Court, in respect of the other gentlemen.

Yours sincerely,

S B Hebbikar
